“ I had the honor of caring for Angie during her illness. I was told so many stories about her from Mr. Terry and Angie's family I met.
There is no doubt that her last days were to be intertwined with my caring for her. Her husband and family touched my heart and we shared a bond over those moments. I know that while I was praying for Mrs Angie and her family, she was also praying for me. They all were! Just know I won't forget you and I'm praying now for comfort and peace over Angie's family. Her love and spirit will always be near to each of you. She made her journey home and is HEALED!
She and her family were a blessing to me! I can still feel the prayers. I love y'all.
