“ Barbara was my closet cousin in age. Her father, Lynnn, was my mother's brother. We rode a bareback horse together, fished in Big Daddy's pond, and caught fireflies while our parents rocked in chairs on the porch. We kept track of the number of Fords and Chevrolets that passed by on the highway. She thought of others who were less fortunate, visiting a friend who was not well enough to attend school. Barbara took comic and fashion books her to read, and visited her often. Cousin Ross Young and I saw her in a few years ago in a nursing home on my last visit to Mississippi. She will always have a warm place in my heart. Rita (Bryan) Lindell

“ I love you Barbara. I remember all the family gatherings at our Big Daddy and Mamma Young's home as we were growing up. You were such a loving girl. I lost touch with you as we went about our adult lives, but I always kept up with you through Nancy's communications about you. You are a part of my soul and I look forward to being with you again in our Father's House one day. I pray that our Father welcomes you into his Kingdom with open arms and mighty rewards. See you soon. Cousin Jerry Bryan.
