“ Oh Debbie, we are so heart broken here at Fresenius home. Reggie looked so good and was so happy when I saw him last week. Please know that we are praying for you and your family. Heaven gained a wonderful man - someone we were not ready to let go of. We are all better for having known him.

“ I just wanted to leave a note to say how much I loved this man. He was the best coach a girl could have ever asked for. He pushed us when we needed pushing and he truly cared about each one of us. He will be dearly missed.

*Until we meet again, I'll give thanks for every remembrance of you.
RIP*

“ Just reflecting today on the day many years ago, in a small house by the side of the road, when 4 people shewed up to help carry our load. Reggie & Debbie and Sammy & Virginia Pace. What a time we had. The four of you painted our house and we had a blast enjoying our lives and time together. Thanks so much for the kindness and good memories together through the years. Our hearts are much in prayer for all of you in this time of sadness. Sorry we cannot be there with you in these days, but we can and will continue to mention all of you before our Lord in prayer. Love you all.
