“ Charles, who was Uncle Charles to me, was fun and always made sure we had a good time when me and my mom and dad would visit. He worked hard and loved his family. I loved visiting all the places they lived while in the military. I am praying for peace for his children Chuck, Lisa, Steve and Brad as they say goodbye to their father. ❤️❤️❤️

“ Pops (Charles) was the absolute best man I have ever known! He was a man of many, many accomplishments and trades. He is the definition of a true Hero in our eyes. He was an amazing husband, father, and grandfather to my children and grandchild, whom he claimed as his own! I'm so thankful I got to call him my husband! He we truly be missed every single day!!

“ I saw Mr. Charles at Lowe’s a few weeks ago and he was telling me how proud he was of Steve and Brad’s son being in the military. He was always such a sweet person.

His “step-children” were considered his children, as well, in his eyes! And the “step-granchild” was his world! Thanks for all the corrections!

“ One of my favorite memories is the fireworks fun over the 4th of July at the Easom Farm with Chuck, Brad, Steve, and Lisa (and all the spouses and kids). There was always so much laughter and fun! We were always made to feel like we were part of the family!!! So sorry for your loss!

“ Charles Easom was a father to many. Weather it be to his own children or the many kids he mentored from Leake County. The legacy he leaves behind is a lasting legacy. One we must pass on and one that CANNOT be forgotten!!!

The last memory I had of Charles was when he hiked the Appalachian Trail many years ago. There was an article posted in one of the local newspapers depicting his trek. I remember Charles' sister, Dorothy. My dad bought my first bicycle from her after she left for college. The elder Easom's were friends of my family in Walnut Grove. Wonderful folks. My grandfather was very fond of Charles and Charles always visited him when in town. Lots of fond memories and those memories will comfort all who graced his presence. With sympathy in your loss, Linda (Allen) Garrett
