“ I will let you know when I get ready to let you know. But if you ever want to see me again and you don't want me to play the same game with you. Then sit down and relax for a few minutes and maybe we can talk about how you have been acting

“ You panic when I don't respond in 2 seconds. I don't live on the phone. Or at least I didn't until you. Give me a damn break. Sometimes I don't look at my emails and then you just drop off and refused to respond because your feelings are hurt

“ To the Family of Charlotte Smith, My deepest sympathy on the loss of your mother/grandmother. I have a fond memory of visiting Charlotte and family when I was very young. We came with my mom (Mae Pait and Aunt Marie May). All of You are in my thoughts and prayers. May God hold your hand and continue to give you peace and love as you walk through this difficult time. Love and Prayers, Renee Thigpen
