“ We met at Bloodview Haunted House we sat next to each other while getting out costumes and make-up on you had deer antlers attached to your stomach with latex, from that night on we talked and shared laughs that led to talking about fishing and hunting... When you were 17 you can to the campground I was in and asked if you could bring a friend we went fishing 2 nights in a row caught some nice catfish cleaned them hit the cleaned up and went to sleep after sitting around the camp fire and roasting hot dogs... The memories will live wish there were time for a lot more Rest In Peace Dakota Griffin scout out some catfishing spots for when we meet again Brother!!!

*Till then,

“ Dakota became a fast friend to our family when he was renovating our home. He and I had so many great conversations, a few tears and lots of laughs. He was such a great guy! I remember when he called to tell me he had gotten married and that Callie was on the way. He was just beaming with pride. I could tell by his voice how truly happy he was. He will be dearly missed by our family. Take your rest friend...until we meet again.
