

Mrs Evelyn D. Watkins

August 31, 1930 - April 9, 2020

Evelyn D. Watkins
Carthage, MS

Evelyn D. Watkins, 89, a retired school teacher and church musician, died Thursday, April 9, 2020 in Florence.

Graveside services are 10:00 am Monday, April 13, 2020 at McCool Cemetery with Bro. Michael Harper officiating. Wilcox Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Watkins was a native of McCool and a member of Carthage First Baptist Church. She was preceded in death by her husband, Coy Watkins; 2 sisters, and 1 brother, James Mildred (James Earl) Grissom, Ethel (Wesley) Whittington, and John Samuel Dempsey.

Survivors include: a son, Larry Watkins of Pearl; a daughter, Jane Smith of Florence; 1 granddaughter, Sara Lynn Smith; 2 great-grandchildren, Adam Hailey Smith and Emily Grace Smith.

Pallbearers are: Derrick Whittington, Alan Whittington, Harold Whittington, and David Smith.

Previous Events

Graveside Service

APR 13. 10:00 AM (CT)

McCool Cemetery
McCool, MS

Tribute Wall

GM

“ 1 file added to the album Evelyn D Watkins

Glenda Matt - April 11, 2020 at 03:02 PM

WP

My mother and father were good friends with Miss Evelyn and Mr. Coy. It was my delight to have her play the piano at my house. She was a very talented lady.

Wynell Crane Parrish - April 14, 2020 at 02:15 AM

GM

“ Dear Jane and Larry, I'm so very sorry for the loss of your mother. Evelyn was the sweetest woman, kind, thoughtful and charitable. I regret that we lost touch once she moved from Carthage, I just want you to know how well thought of she was. I am happy for her, though, that she has re-united with your dad, Coy, the love of her life. I pray for y'all in her absence. Sincerely, Glenda Grimes Matt, Lafayette

Glenda Matt - April 11, 2020 at 02:52 PM