Floyd Edward Williams
Carthage, MS

Floyd Edward Williams, 88, died December 27, 2020 due to Covid-19 virus. He was born July 16, 1932. After graduation from Long Beach High School, he served 3 years in the United States Air Force and returned to the University of Southern MS for his degree in human resources. His employment includes, Mississippi Chemical Corporation, Pascagoula, MS; Tupperware Company, Hemingway, SC; and Tyson Foods, Grannis, AR and Carthage, MS.

Floyd was a faithful member of Carthage United Methodist Church and enjoyed traveling and Jeopardy. However, his favorite hobby was reading. Floyd was preceded in death by his parents, Floyd, Sr. and Ruby Williams Whitten, along with one brother, Gary Williams, and his first wife, Ramona Franklin Williams. Floyd and Ramona were the parents of Clay (Cindy) of Florence, SC, Brian (Debra) of Lexington, SC; Scott Williams of Madison, AL; one daughter, Laura (Allen) Smith of Dequeen, AR; 10 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren. Floyd is also survived by his second wife, Ouida White Williams and step-children, Michele Kuhn and Joey Hayes, all of Carthage, MS.

Private family services were held at Carthage United Methodist Church Chapel followed by interment in Carthage Memorial Gardens with Rev. Joe Barber officiating.

In lieu of flowers, Floyd requested memorial contributions be made to the Methodist Children's Home in Jackson, MS.

“ From the first time I met Floyd, we just clicked and I'll never forget the Thanksgivings that we decorated for the White family reunions. I'll never forget the lunches we shared just before those reunions when we could barely walk after having set up for them.
