“ Linda, Terri, Christy, and Mary, and all the grand children, god bless all of you. I don,t think there could have been a better husband, father, brother or grandfather. But not to worry, if there was ever a place in heaven, it had the name Jim Sanders on it !!! After my mom died, Jim was still working offshore, dad was alone at home most of the time, Jim would stop by on his way back to Mississippi and check on him, dad would look forward to that, and would tell me all about it. That was the kind of person he was. When we would go to the family reunions I would see my wife Nora, and Jim outside talking for quite some time, so on time I asked, what they talked about so long. They were talking about the bible, which she knows pretty good, but she said Jlm would give her a lesson!! We wanted to come to the funeral, but we aren,t getting any younger, and could not take the chance with the Covid. GOD BLESS YALL!!! RICK and NORA

“ My thoughts and prayers are with your family. Jimmie Moore thought the world of Jim and I heard him speak highly of him many times. I'm sure that is true of a lot of people in Leake County.

“ Jim was always someone that I looked up to; he was the perfect example of what a Godly man is supposed to be. He loved his family, loved his Lord, and loved his life. He was always supportive of those of us who came behind him. He made a difference. Linda, my heart is with you, and I am sending you all my love!

“ I knew this man aboard ship, USS Manley DD940 for just a short period before he left for another ship. He was an MM and I was a BT ,but I did learn a few things from him about being in the Navy. He was a good teacher. I ran into him several years later while working a job . He had not changed much. My old Friend, Shipmate, relax .No more watches. Fair winds and Following Seas, keep the lamp burning.

“ I am saddened. Jim and I served aboard the Manley from 60-62 and became good friends. He was very helpful to me as I just finished boot camp in San Diego and went aboard the Manley. Such a precious man and great friend. He will be sorely missed. Sorry Linda for your loss...lots of love and prayers. ❤️🙏❤️
