Jerry loved to give you directions no matter where you were going. We are certain that no one will ever be lost now that he is in Heaven with his savior Jesus. He loved to banter back and forth if he loved you, so if you ever experienced that consider yourself on his “loved” list. We all look forward to experiencing that again one day.

Jerry loved his “fur babies” and the OG of them all Ziggy Dog” was surely there when he arrived at the Pearly Gates. His other favorite activity was bird watching with Sandy K from their living room.

We will always love you and we will always miss you Paw Paw, but we are so thankful that you knew Jesus as your savior and that because of that assurance, we know we will be together again one day in Glory with you and Jesus.

In lieu of flowers the family requests that donations be made to Mars Hill Cemetery Perpetual Care Fund or a Gideon donation.

Services will be 2 pm at Wilcox in Carthage on Wednesday, Oct. 30th. with burial at Mars Hill Cemetery in Neshoba County. Visitation will be Tuesday, Oct. 29th from 5 pm until 7 pm at Wilcox.

“ I will remember Jerry sitting on his back porch with Mister (his 3-legged dog) watching the birds. He made sure there was food in the bird feeder, water in the bird bath and clean bird houses once the temporary residents opted to leave. He also had his chair with a clear view of the bird activity. Again, Mister was not too far away normally.

Jerry, thank you for blessing us in our lives. We will miss your quick wit and love of nature. Most of all we will miss your caring heart for family, other people and all animals.

A massive bear hug is sent to Sandy, Shawn and the rest. We ache. We know his soul is at peace. He is free to fly now, just like those birds that hatch and grow then fly from the bird house.

If you see birds in your yard or somewhere else remember Jerry. Know he would love the view.

“ I regret that I am unable to attend Jerry 's memorial service. He was a good and trusted friend and classmate at Walnut Grove High. He served his country in war and fellowman in peace. We'll miss you, Jerry. Rest in peace.
