John Raymon Jones

Walnut Grove, MS

John Raymon Jones, age 92, lifelong resident of Walnut Grove, MS, passed away peacefully on May 17, 2024.

His adult life was filled with various jobs and hobbies especially woodworking and gardening. He never took a vacation because there was always work that needed to be done. He was known for his quick wit and the ability to make people laugh with his funny tales when he was reminiscing. He was always singing gospel songs and played the guitar frequently.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Charlie and Maggie Jones; sisters, Mary Bell Shaw, Edna Earl Jones, and Frances Rogers; a brother, Charles Junior Jones.

He is survived by his loving wife, Glenda Jones of 67 years; their children, Liesa Allen and husband, Gary, of Philadelphia, Carleen Gilmore of Sebastopol, Carla Morton of Tullahoma, TN, and John Paul Jones of Walnut Grove. He was blessed to have five grandchildren: Carl Cash, Tyler Gilmore, Lacey Tharp, April King, and Kristian Adams; seven great-grandchildren: Wesley and Jase Hogue, Falynn and Freya Gilmore, Nora and Abigail Tharp, McKenzie Cash and Hans Adams.

We want to thank the staff at Baptist Leake Hospital and Trend Health and Rehab for caring for all of us. Thanks to everyone for all the prayers, texts, calls, and food over these past weeks. Please continue to remember mom and the family in the coming days.
