“ When we were young kids, just three years apart in age, we would play cowboys and Indians. Johnny would always be the cowboy and I would be the Indian. Loved him so much!

So sadden to hear about our cousin's death. Words can not be found to express our sorrow for you and your family. We pray for strength to go through this deep valley and comfort from the Lord as you have to face the coming tomorrows without Johnny Ira. Sure wished we had made it back up there to see you all again.
