“Julian and Jack and Kitty....the three Amigos. So grateful for the years I shared with these two best friends....Julian stepping through the ceiling at Jack's family home as we labored together....Julian and Jack and the pontoon trips on the river....our friendships....our sharing our love for God and love for each other as friends. What an honor to have been called friend by Julian. Humble, smart, and kind, and I called him Dr. Colonel Julian. Precious man. Precious friend. And I adored the way he loved Jamie, his daughter. Miss him so much, but I carry him in my heart...daily. Love to Jamie and those who loved Julian. Kitty

“*I likened Julian to my Little Brother.
His accomplishments were many and impressive and respected contributions to our society.
His discipline and integrity were examples of his love for our country.
His love for Christ was his testimony for all to see.
His friendship was my honor.
