

Mrs Linda Marie Holland Pickle

November 20, 1944 - January 17, 2025

Linda Marie Holland Pickle

Linda Marie Holland Pickle, 80, passed away peacefully in her sleep, leaving behind a legacy of love, faith, and cherished memories. Born to Evelyn and Thomas Ellis Holland, Linda lived a life devoted to her family, friends, and community. She was preceded in death by her husband William Harold Pickle, Sr. Funeral services will be Monday January 20, 2025 at 2:00 at Rocky Point Baptist Church with Bro. Tim Tolleson officiating. Visitation is from 12 until 2 on Monday at the church. The burial will follow in Rocky Point Cemetery.

Linda was the beloved mother of three children: Malinda Leigh Watkins, William Harold Pickle, Jr, and Ellis Holland Pickle. She was also the proud grandmother to Jessi, Matthew, Brooklynn, Austin, Brendan, Christopher, Harmony, Jay, Christian, Nevaeh and the great grandmother of Emma, Lucas, and Lydia, all of whom she adored. Her family extended further with two cherished sons-in-law, Chris Watkins and Charles Figgemeier, one beloved daughter-in-law, Melinda Pickle, Cliff and Breanna Pickle and kids Row, Ben, and Cal and many others whose lives she touched deeply.

Linda is also survived by her loving sister, Wayla Jean Myers, her brother-in-law, Kenny Myers, niece Cindy Adams, and nephews Andy Woods and Randy Woods, along with their families, all of whom brought her joy and love throughout her life.

Known for her extraordinary cooking, Linda had a gift for bringing people together around the table, creating moments filled with laughter, warmth, and unforgettable meals. Her heart was as big as her personality, and her candid, no-nonsense attitude was loved and respected by all who knew her.

Linda retired from the Leake County School District after years of dedication and service. She was a devoted member of Rocky Point Baptist Church, where her faith remained a cornerstone of her life.

Pallbearers are Stacey Burkes, Mark Sullivan, Josh Mann, Casey Burns, Matthew Letchworth, and Austin Letchworth.

Honorary pallbearers are Brendon Letchworth, Christopher Letchworth, and Cliff Pickle.

“ My fondest memory of Aunt Linda (besides her cooking) was sitting in her lap as a little girl in front of the fireplace at Grandma Pickle and Paw Kirk’s house roasting peanuts and watching this Ms America pageant. She was so patient teaching me how to roast peanuts and shell them while debating over who should be the winner. I loved her ability to be blunt and honest but still loving. She will be missed.

“ I Won’t ever forget how Aunt Linda taught me how to make “cat head biscuits” during one of her visits to Milledgeville to see her sister and extended family. We will miss her caring, compassionate ways. God bless her family and friends during this difficult time. ❤️

“ Linda was a dear friend who visited her sister Waylo in Ga . Over the years . Always enjoyed sharing a meal with her when she visited . I was welcomed with open arms to her home back several years ago and enjoyed all the cooking she did . Her laughter and smile and always sending things on F/b by keeping in touch . She will be missed by all that knew and loved her . God bless her family during this time and may God give them peace and Comfort . Love you all .Brenda Miller ,Sparta Georgia
