“ Gimpy you were a true southern gentleman that I was proud to call my friend. You took time to reach out to so many of us just to check on us or to lend an ear or give wise advice. They just don't make them like you anymore. The world is a sadder place now without you in it. You are missed more than you would have ever imagined and my comfort is knowing we will see you again one day. Thank you for being the true gentleman you were. You are loved and will be missed always.

“ Mark it was good to know ya old buddy! It's to bad you never made it out to Idaho like we'd talked! I always wanted to see how a “Mississippi House Plant” would have survived a winter in the Rockies! You're already greatly missed by all of us that got to know you!

“ He met me and Amanda gaming. He would talk to my kids when they was little while we played online. We met face to face when I was working in Mississippi. We shared a bottle of shine and talked like lifelong friends. Neither of us realized at that time that was just the beginning of our relationship. I can't let go of that nor do I want to. He will always be my friend, brother and more. We will meet again someday brother. I wish he could have met my youngest daughter.

“ My deepest condolences to the family. Mark has been a good friend of mine for 20 year. The things he said and his stubbornness made me laugh all the time. Mark was a simple a good person to his core; even when he didn't want to show it. We gamed together off and on throughout that time. I'll never forget the first time we met in person he asked me to take him to the liquor store. It was a typical Mark thing to want. I will miss him and I hope he is in peace and will be reunited with his pup Sass and his other various cats and dogs.

*Always

“ To the McPhail family, I would like to share my deepest sympathy with you all. Mark was an amazing and loved man who truly lit up my day every single day. I enjoyed a text or call from him every day. He was taken from this earth too soon, but his mark on this world will never be forgotten.

John 16:33

"In the world you will have tribulation. But take heart; I have overcome the world."

*Love Always

Mark will be missed. He has been a brother and friend of mine and wife over 20 years. He was an uncle to my children. We all will miss him greatly and am honored that he was in our lives. He is example that family isn't always by blood. Deepest sympathy from the Rigmaiden family
