“ Dear Family and Friends of Mrs. Ruth, during her many years she touched many lives and will be thought of often. May your many memories bring you comfort during this special time. May your prayers bring you the peace of God that goes beyond all human thought to guard your hearts. Philippians 4:6,7

“ Deep sympathy from Etta Ingram and daughters Ann and Sylvia. Mrs. Ruth was always so pretty and was always smiling when I (Sylvia) saw her in the store. After she went into the nursing home, I missed so much running into her, and thought of her often. She was always so sweet to me. I will continue to miss her! God bless you all.
