

Mrs Millie Jo Jordan

November 14, 1938 - October 20, 2024

Millie Jo Howell Jordan, 85, of Birmingham, Alabama passed away October 20, 2024, following a brief illness.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Johnnie K. Jordan; her parents, Rosie and Doris Howell; her brother, Clark Howell; and her stepson, John Jordan. She is survived by her daughter, Sheila (Phil) Sanders; her grandchildren Jordan (Ricky) Tantillo, Steven (Caroline) Sanders, and John Sanders; and her great-grandchildren Beckett and Smith Sanders and Nolan Tantillo. Other survivors include her stepdaughters, Janet (Bob) Hawkins and Lynn (Kevin) Pence; her stepdaughter-in-law, Dinah Jordan; and their children and grandchildren.

Born November 14, 1938, Millie grew up in Carthage, Mississippi, where she lived most of her life. A graduate of Carthage High School, she had a fulfilling career as a bookkeeper after graduating from business school. Millie was an active member of First Baptist Church, and over the years, she sang in the choir, was a member of the Finance Committee, and taught Sunday School classes for adults and junior high girls. She cherished her friendships in Carthage and enjoyed many games of bridge and dominoes.

Millie's faith and her love for family defined her, and after she was diagnosed with leukemia in 2023, she moved to Birmingham to be closer to her family. She thrived in her new home at Brookdale Senior Living, where she served as an Ambassador and welcomed new residents to the community, helping them to get involved in the many activities she so enjoyed.

A celebration of her life will be held Thursday, October 24, at First Baptist Church of Carthage. Visitation will be at noon, followed by a funeral service at 1 p.m. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to First Baptist Church of Carthage, 402 N Van Buren St, Carthage, MS 39051.
