“ I am heartbroken to learn of Noah Massey's death just now. He meant so much to my father, Clarence Massey, his first cousin and subsequently to me in the last few years. He and I strolled around Goshen Cemetery (where our ancestors are) on more than one occasion. He was generous in his hospitality and family stories whenever I would be in Carthage. I am so sad that we will not have those visits but will remember him when I am in Carthage and Goshen. I will pray for the comfort that the Lord provides to his family, Carolyn Massey Strassheim

“ One of my proudest recent memories is when Granddaddy looked at me and said you have the most beautiful baby I have ever seen. She's just perfect! I'm so happy he got to meet her!

“ Noah was one of a kind, there will never be another. I worked with him for years at The Carthage Bank. I am so sorry for your loss.
