“ Share a memory of Mr. Randall "Randy" Levoy Moore or send condolences to the family.

Our deepest sympathy to Doyle, Betty and family. We were saddened to read of Randy 's death this morning. Had we known earlier we would have come to visitation. Our memories go back to a time when Doyle served as the pastor of Sharon United Methodist Church. He, Betty and the children lived in the parsonage. We had been planning a visit but like so many instances we never found a suitable time for all. Milton McFarland, who now maintains the cemetery, recently laughed about playing there and Randy yelling into one of old broken stones "anybody down there". Even after all these years sweet memories remain. It's difficult for parents when children go before us and I know Doyle and Betty are heartbroken. May your angels protect you and God heal your aching hearts
