“ What can I say about the loss of my dear friend and long-time LITTLE SIS from childhood days. Years found us drifting apart but deep love and care drew us back together rekindling childhood old fun time days spent playing together in the same little country town of Eros, La. Her Dad & Mom pastored our church and she was the “PK”. Her sisters were older so she got a lot of attention and we all just spoiled her rotten (you could smell her before you saw her due to her rottenness!) While her family and church was her life, she had a Daddy & Momma waiting on the other side that she had helped to care for in their golden years and she was a Daddy’s girl! Her heart began to long to be with them more and she made her trip quickly. While it was unsuspected, it was not a total shock because Heaven’s call was very strong and she had let us all know she was really homesick for her ETERNAL HOME! Robbie Jean, I loved you then, I love you now and I will love you forever. You behave and stay sweet until your BIG SIS gets there which I feel is soon! RIP!
