“ 4/3/2026. I ran across this photograph (in my phone) where my husband and I met this precious little man on the street in Gatlinburg on April 4, 2016. If I remember correctly, he was teasing me about my shirt and me about his cap. When searching on the Internet, I happen to run across his son-in-law's obituary, which had a title to Laurel, Mississippi. My mother was from Ellisville, Mississippi, and my parents met in Laurel, Mississippi. Small world.

“ Ted was an outstanding Christian gentleman with a strong handshake and a quick wit. Many times, I'd see Ted power walking on Gatlinburg's streets. Our church loved Mr. Ted. His Christian witness was a strong credit to a life well lived.
