“ Oh my goodness, I had no idea. Todd was my cousin, his grandmother was my aunt and she gave us both a ride home after school. We had fun hanging out after school on the playground. He was a sweet gentle soul, and hard to believe he’s gone at such a young age. Haven’t seen him in years, but we kept up on Facebook. My thoughts and prayers are with his family, I know it’s a huge loss for everyone.

“ For anyone who had the privilege of knowing Todd, his mark will forever be on our lives. His kindness, generosity and caring nature were contagious and his memory will live in each of us forever. Todd was a blessing to humanity and was someone we should all strive to be more like. Praying that God gives you the strength and courage to get through your loss and hoping it helps just by knowing the impact that Todd had on the lives of others that extended beyond his immediate surroundings.

Continued prayers for your beautiful family and so sorry for your loss...

“ I was his Aunt Chere and I loved him like my own. He was like my 1st born. I helped raised him basically. I have never missed a single birthday in 60 years. I will miss him so very much but I know I will see him again one day when I meet Jesus too and the rest of my family. RIP Todd, you will definitely be missed down here on earth.

“ Todd is my cousin. When we were younger and he would come visit at our house or our grandparents house, he used to put me on his shoulders. Of course he was the tallest in the family, so in order for him to walk in through the doorway, he would have to duck down. Course it was impossible if I was on his shoulders, but I felt like those people that walk on stilts! I am short, so it was great to feel tall and see over people's heads.
Todd will be missed. Really wished I could have talked to him one last time.

“ If you truly knew Todd, you knew he was a proud man!! Not of himself and his accomplishments, but of his two sons and his grandson. I say he was the face of Guns N Gear!! He was going to greet you immediately upon entering the door. He would give anyone in need the shirt off his back. Rest easy friend, you will always be remembered and always be missed by those that loved you the most.
